

George Naufal

Principal Investigator,
gnaufal@ppri.tamu.edu

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
Public Policy
Research Institute

More about George

Dr. Naufal is an associate research scientist and a research fellow at both the IZA Institute of Labor Economics and the Economic Research Forum (ERF). He earned his Ph.D. in Economics in 2007 from Texas A&M University and was an associate professor of Economics at the American University of Sharjah in the United Arab Emirates. His area of expertise is applied econometrics with applications to labor economics, criminal justice, education, health, and migration demographics.

George's CV

PPRI Video

Career Highlights

We asked George to highlight five career accomplishments. He listed the following:

- 1. Two-time winner of the Jeff Edwardson Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Instructor, Department of Economics
- 2. Principal investigator for projects by international, national, and state-level funders, securing more than $1.5 million in grant funding
- 3. Major news outlets including the New York Times, Bloomberg, Reuters, the Washington Post, and NPR have covered his work
- 4. Published 25 peer-reviewed articles, 9 book chapters, 9 policy reports, and a book
- 5. Cited in the S.C.R. 009 Resolution by the Utah Legislature

6
Years
with PPRI